

Ableism in Higher Education

Washington Metro Disabled Students Collective Community Forum

Rachel Eva Bass
Student Advisory Board
Gallaudet University

Nia Lazarus
GU Signs
Georgetown University

Allie Cannington
Youth Transition Fellow
Nation Council on Independent Living

Natalia Rivera
Morales
Autistic Self Advocacy
Network

Maria Town
Office of Disability
Employment Policy
Department of Labor

Saturday, Nov. 22
11am-1pm: Panel / Q&A
1pm-2pm: Lunch
2pm-4pm: Workshop

Phillips Hall, Room 108
George Washington Univ.
801 22nd Street NW
Washington, D.C. 20052

Please join our fantastic panelists to discuss ableism in higher education and create action plans for both our local communities and policy change!

- Barriers to accessing higher education for students with disabilities
- Preparing disabled students for post-secondary programs
- Embedded ableism in coursework and curricula design
- Inclusion in campus life and student activities
- Intersectional ableism for multiply-marginalized disabled students
- Ableist narratives of overcoming, passing, or hiding
- Differences for those with hidden or apparent disabilities, or both
- Empowering students to organize on their campuses
- Creating more welcoming campuses and college communities

ASL Interpretation | Fragrance-Free | Wheelchair/Mobility Access

For any other disability access or reasonable accommodation requests, contact Lydia Brown. You may email lydia@autistichoya.com or voice-call or text message (202) 618-0187 anytime before the event. We are committed to access for all.

Washington Metro Disabled Students Collective www.disabledstudentsdc.org in partnership with the George Washington University Progressive Student Union

